Wendy Nicolas Married In Rites Here Saturday

Miss Wendy Jean Nicolas and Michael Stephen Schneider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schneider of Somerset, were united in marriage by the Rev. Howard C. Patterson, pastor of the local First United Methodist Church, Saturday evening at 7:30.

The Kane Country Club, decorated with candelabra, bouquets of white gladioli with daisies and greens, provided the setting for the evening ceremony.

Traditional wedding music was played by Loren Wright with Robert Bloomquist, soloist, singing "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Marasco of 105 Clay Street here, was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Nicolas. She was attired in a skimmer gown of white ribbed Ottoman with a standing collar. Sleeves, collar and hemline were trimmed in bands of self fabric. A detachable train fell from the shoulders and it also was bordered in the wide bands of fabric. Her headdress was an organza bow seeded with pearls to hold her bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Michele Nicolas, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Leonard Lewis and Miss Toni Marasco. They wore gowns of brown voile decorated with daisies and featuring collars and cuffs in white dotted Swiss. Each carried a nosegay of daisies and wore dotted Swiss bonnets.

Leonard Lewis, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Paul Linder and Stephen Harvey.

Mrs. Marasco, mother of the bride, selected a pastel flowered dress of chiffon and wore a coral corsage of feathered carnations.

The groom's mother chose a blue damask dress and coat ensemble and wore a corsage of blue tipped white roses.

The reception, which was held immediately following the ceremony at the Kane Country Club, from 8 to 11 o'clock, was attended by over 200 guests. Mrs. Arnold Burget and the Misses Cathy Bloomquist, Anne Marasco and Margie McDermott assisted with serving.

The new Mrs. Schneider chose a navy knit dress, navy straw hat and a corsage of garden flowers for traveling to New York City. The couple will reside at 56 A. Rutgers Road, Piscataway, N.J.

The newlyweds are graduates of Guilford College, Greensboro, N.C.

Mr. Schneider is employed by the Shell Oil Co. of Miami Beach, Fla.
