

Clayton Tambeau

December 27, 2020

Clayton Tambeau, age 59, of Scranton, passed away Sunday morning at Geisinger Community Medical Center in Scranton after an illness.

Born on Dec. 16, 1961, and son of the late William S. and Althea (Ninehan) Tambeau, Clayton was a graduate of the former Scranton Technical High School. He was a valued employee of St. Joseph's Center in Scranton before his sickness.

Clayton had a heart of gold, willing to do anything for anyone. Possessing a memorable humor and fun personality, he will never be forgotten.

He is survived by siblings, Lee Tambeau and Nancy Moore; an aunt, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins, including Mariann Hill.

Brothers, Craig and Steven Tambeau, also preceded him in death.

Private arrangements are under the care of the Kevin K. Kearney Funeral Home Inc., 125 N. Main Ave., Scranton, with burial at the Dunmore Cemetery. Please visit the funeral home's website to leave a condolence.

Clipped By:

padreifuss
Sun, Jul 4, 2021