MR. AND MRS. CHRISTOPHER J. WILSON

Wedding vows were exchanged on June 16 in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church by Nancy Tambeau, daughter of Mrs. Althea J. Tambeau, 607 Edgar St., Throop, and the late William S. Tambeau, and Christopher J. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wilson, 47 Honor Park, Moosic.

Klaus Molzhan officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The bride selected a white satin gown, styled with a plunging bodice with sheer illusion insets and kente lace, sequins and pearls, puffed sleeves, a full, pick-up skirt accented with bows and a lace flounce hem extending to a chapel-length train. Her V-band of pearls, beads, silk flowers and sprays held a pair, blusher and a fingertip-length veil. She carried a cascading arrangement of white roses and stephanotis accented with pearl sprays and English ivy.

Joelle Tambeau, Dickson City, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in seafarer gowns with a high-low hem.

Attired identically to the matron of honor were bridesmaids Dawn Rollis, Jerryn, Lisa Fodcock, Clifford, and Kathleen Batebridge, Throop.

Jessica Moran, Scranton, was flower girl.

William Kline, Niagara Falls, uncle of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Frank Reid, Moosic, and Greg Rommoko and Paul Johnson, both of Scranton.

A reception was conducted at the Grand Ballroom of the Masonic Temple.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of Mid-Valley Secondary Center and is employed by Dun and Bradstreet. She is pursuing a career in the medical field.

The bridegroom is a 1988 graduate of Riverside High School and is an assistant manager at Radio Shack. He is a member of the Greenwood Volunteer Hose Company #1.

Following a wedding trip to Disneyworld, Orlando, Fla., and a cruise to the Bahamas, the couple resides in Moosic.
