WILLIAM A. NINEHAN

William Albert Ninehan, 1439 N. Main Ave., died Monday at Mercy Hospital after an illness. He was the husband of Kathleen Loftus Ninehan. They celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary in October.

Born in Portswood, South Hampton, England, son of the late Joseph and Ada Jones Ninehan, he was a veteran of World War I, having served with the Canadian army. He was a general contractor in coal mines, self-employed at Gem Electric Hardware Store and later Ninehen Luncheonette at the North Main Avenue address. He was a member of St. Vincent dePaul Church and its Holy Name Society.

Surviving are two sons, Ray, Lincoln Park, N.J., and William, Gainesville, Fla.; five daughters, Kathleen Angeline and Althea Tambau, both of Throop; Mary Brown, Eleanor Cimino and Annette Hill, all of Scranton; 28 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death were two grandchildren and one great-grandson.

The funeral will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. from the Edward T. Klimatis Funeral Home, 1640 N. Main Ave., with Mass in St. Vincent dePaul Church. Interment, Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Dunmore.

Viewing, today, 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.
