

Annette
Ninehan Hill
December 8, 2005

Annette Ninehan Hill, Scranton, died Thursday at Mercy Hospice after a courageous battle with lung cancer. She was the wife of George Hill. They celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary on Oct. 16.

Born in Scranton, daughter of the late Albert and Kathleen Loftus Ninehan, she was educated in Scranton schools and, prior to retirement, she had been employed by T's Corner News and previously by Hill's and Ames department stores. She was a member of St. Vincent dePaul Church.

She was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and mother-in-law. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Also surviving are three sons, George and wife, Sandra, Reading, Donald, Scranton, and Michael and wife, Mariann, Scranton; two daughters, Linda and husband, Thomas Borgia, Scranton, and Cookie Driesbaugh, Clarks Summit; seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, two sisters, Eleanor Cimino, Scranton, and Kathleen Angelini, Dickson City, and several nieces and nephews.

She was also preceded in death by a son-in-law, Timothy Driesbaugh; two brothers, Roy and William Ninehan; and two sisters, Mary Halpine and Althes Tambeau.

The funeral will be Monday from the Solfanelli-Fiorillo Funeral Home Inc., 1030 N. C. Main Ave., with Mass at 11:30 a.m. in St. Vincent dePaul Church. Interment, private at the convenience of the family in Mount Carmel Cemetery, Dunmore.

Friends may call Sunday, 3 to 6 p.m. The family requests that no flowers be sent.
