

Linda Hill, Thomas J. Borgia Exchange Vows in Ceremony

Reception Follows Nuptials Performed

By Magi Lowery

In a ceremony performed Saturday at 1 p.m. at St. Vincent de Paul Church, Miss Linda Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, 1228 N. Main Ave., became the bride of Thomas J. Borgia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Borgia, 1802 Green Ridge St., Dunmore.

Miss J. Mary Lowery officiated before an altar decorated with roses of white gladioli and yellow gerberas. Floral garlands marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a Princesa gown in white tulle and organza edged with pearl and sequin-embroidered Alencon appliques on the empire bodice. A V-neckline of ruffled lace-long fitted sleeves patterned with lace appliques and full circular cuffs outlined with lace. A high row border of beaded lace and buttons-embroidered motifs on the center of skirt and full sweep chapel train. Her chapel train, completely beaded in recombed Alencon lace, was attached to a pearl-embroidered lace Caronnet bodice. The bride carried a formal cascade of white caryatids and white sweetheart roses centered with a cluster of white caryatid roses.

Miss Cindy Collins, this city, was maid of honor for her cousin. She wore a long-sleeved, long-train gown with a long-train skirt and a long-train skirt. She carried a cluster of roses, carnations, baby's breath and white ribbon. She wore a comb in her hair.

Active similarly in costume were the bridesmaids: Jane Borgia, Dunmore, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; in blue; Jane Mary Accardi, this city, in apricot; and Diane Collins, this city, cousin of the bride, in fresh mint. Carol Hill, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, attired in a pink gown.

Jill Borgia, Dunmore, niece of the bridegroom, wore a long blue, post-crown and tulle dress with a ruffled collar, lace and applique trim and a long-train skirt. She carried a basket of pink and lavender flowers and wore a wreath of fresh flowers in her hair.

Anthony Borgia, Dunmore, was best man for his brother. Others were Donald, Michael and George Hill Jr., brothers of the bride; and William Grambs, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception for 175 guests followed at Lancers' Lounge, Olyphant.

The bride, a graduate of Technical High School, is employed at Three National Bank.

An alumna of Dunmore High School and Johnson School of Technology, the bridegroom is employed at Ethical Co.

The bride's mother chose a long-sleeved, long-train gown with long sleeves, white lace trim and a caryatid-embroidered bodice.

The mother of the bridegroom selected a long blue gown with an illu skirt, a V-neckline, a sleeveless bodice and a caryatid-embroidered bodice.

For traveling to the ceremony, the bride wore a three-piece white accessories and a long-train skirt, a of white caryatids.

Mrs. Thomas Borgia, the former Linda Hill

For traveling to the ceremony, the bride wore a three-piece white accessories and a long-train skirt, a of white caryatids.

Mrs. Thomas Borgia, the former Linda Hill

For traveling to the ceremony, the bride wore a three-piece white accessories and a long-train skirt, a of white caryatids.

Births

YERKE — John and Andrea Zanki Torko, 108 Sanderson St., Thomp., a son April 24, Merry Hospital.

CRAY — Bernard and

Now that we've joined The... save for a bet

Clipped By:

padreifuss
Sun, Jun 27, 2021